

TOURISTS ENJOYED THE COACHING TRIP

The first coaching trip around the island of Oahu under the auspices of the Hawaii Promotion Committee was a success, and the eleven persons, mainly tourists, who made the journey, express themselves well satisfied.

The party left Honolulu shortly after 1 o'clock on Wednesday afternoon and went to the Koolau side of the island via the Pali. The party was comfortably seated in the coach "El Capitán" with Mr. Lewis driving. A stop was made at the Lansing's. At night the entire party was comfortably housed and excellent meals were served. The start for Kahuku was made the next morning, the coach arriving there shortly after noon, and in the evening the tourists were entertained at the Haleiwa Hotel. The party returned to Honolulu on Friday afternoon at 6, passing through the Wahiawa country en route from Wahiawa.

William I. Patterson and W. E. Grace, president of the Citizen's National Bank of Baker City, Oregon, were members of the coaching party. Both say they would not have missed the trip for triple the cost.

"I have never taken a trip outside Honolulu which pleased me so much," said Mr. Grace at the Young Hotel last evening. "The weather was fine and the roads were excellent. In fact, I was not prepared to ride over such smooth roads. They are a credit to the Hawaiian Government. That road skirts along the seashore and goes through an interesting country. We were well treated all the way."

"Mr. Clark's farming place at Wahiawa was a surprise to us. Mr. Clark is certainly a practical farmer. The pineapple plantation is thriving and worth seeing."

An Infant's Death.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Kerr's infant daughter, eight or nine months old, died at 9:40 yesterday morning, at the residence of Mrs. J. A. Hopper, corner of Keaumoku and Heulu streets. The child had been removed thither from the Kerr home on Pacific Heights to be within easy reach of the attending physician. Congestion of the lungs following a threatened attack of meningitis was the cause of death. Mr. Kerr was absent on Maui at the time and efforts were made during yesterday to convey the sad news to him by wireless telegraph.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Col. Z. S. Spalding of Kauai is registered at the Young Hotel.

The first rehearsal for the Brahms concert will be held at 5 p. m. today. Remember that the box plan for the Brahms concert on the 28th inst. opens at Wall, Nichols Co. this morning.

A special meeting of the Ahahui Iolani Guild will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at St. Andrew's Sunday-school room.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Knudsen, Mrs. V. Knudsen, Miss Ruth Knudsen and nurse, arrived yesterday on the W. G. Hall and are guests at the Hawaiian Hotel.

E. Walther and Siegfried Meyer of Copenhagen returned on the Kinau last Saturday from a visit to the volcano. The gentlemen are traveling around the world and express themselves as extremely pleased with the islands.

Mr. and Mrs. L. von Templesy and family, Miss Wedehouse and Miss Carlsen of Makawao, Maui, arrived yesterday from Maui on the Claudine and are registered at the Hawaiian Hotel. They will remain here about two months.

The regular meeting of the Honolulu Engineering Association will be held at the rooms of the Symphony Society, corner of Richards and Hotel streets, at 5 o'clock this evening. E. G. Keen will read a paper on "Public Health and Sanitation." Discussion on the burning of fuel oil will follow. A committee of arrangements for the annual meeting next month is to be appointed.

Mrs. Smith, wife of purser Smith of the Oceanic Steamship Alameda, gave a delightful lunch party on Saturday evening. The lunch took the party about the moonlit harbor and far out in the channel. The guests, numbering about forty ladies and gentlemen, passed the evening in singing, many having guitars and ukuleles with them. Later in the evening the guests partook of an excellent collation.

Coontz Promoted.

The many friends on this coast of Lieutenant Robert E. Coontz, who was for some time attached to the United States training ship Buffalo, will be glad to hear that he has received his promotion to the grade of lieutenant-commander. Lieutenant and Mrs. Coontz left here a few weeks ago for Hannibal, Mo., where they expected to visit relatives for some little time, after which they will proceed to Washington, where Lieutenant-Commander Coontz has been ordered for duty at the Bureau.—San Francisco Bulletin.

Lieut.-Com. Coontz was here in attendance at the Geneva murder trial.

HALEIWA.

The Haleiwa Hotel, Honolulu's famous country resort, on the line of the Oahu Railway, contains every modern improvement and affords its guests an opportunity to enjoy all amusements—golf, tennis, billiards, fresh and salt water bathing, shooting, fishing, riding and driving.
